Mission: Oak Hills Football Youth Skills and Technique Camp is designed to provide athletes with instruction in all phases of football: Offense, Defense and Special Teams. We focus on teaching young players the techniques they will need to develop their game. We also instruct players about dedication and teamwork. We strive to make this camp not only a learning experience but also a chance for campers to compete against each other with daily competitions while building friendships and leadership opportunities. Campers are grouped according to their ages to allow them to compete against other campers of their skill level.
